Mr. Donald Pellegrini
Headmaster

Headmaster's Message

I offer each of you my personal congratulations as graduating Seniors of West Roxbury High School's Class of 2004! Four years ago, you entered a new world as Freshmen unsure of yourselves and unsure of your direction. Yet you were excited and full of energy and enthusiasm. You channeled that excitement, energy, and enthusiasm into your schoolwork and your activities. Four years later, the results are clear. As graduating Seniors, you are focused on the adult world, ready to make your mark on our society. Now, as you venture forth either to college, the military, or a career, you carry with you the very best wishes and encouragement of the entire Westie community. We are all confident of your ability to proudly and successfully represent Westie!

The Mission of NJROTC

To develop informed, young leaders who understand the duties of U. S. citizenship. As citizens, NJROTC cadets must understand that they must do their part to help their country. NJROTC emphasizes each person's responsibilities in society. The program includes classroom study, physical fitness, respectful conduct, good personal appearance, and leadership training. It also gives the student a perspective of the Navy's part in U. S. history.

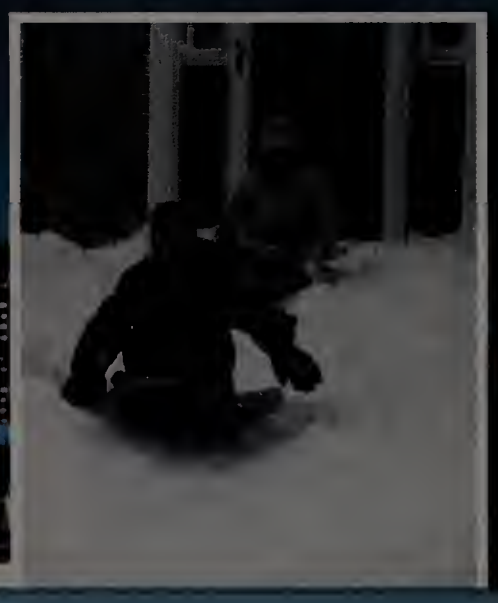
Plans are in place for new construction on the site of the World Trade Center, which was destroyed on 9/11. If built, the Freedom Tower will reach 1,776 feet and become the tallest building in the world.

AP / Wide World Photos

Concerns remained about the development of nuclear weapons by Iran and North Korea. However, Libya agreed to dismantle its nuclear program.

AP / Wide World Photos



In January, a dangerous cold spell gripped the Northeast. The high demand for electricity led utility companies to warn residents of possible rolling blackouts.

AP / Wide World Photos

A European heat wave killed more than 14,000 people in late summer. As illness and deaths increased, a crisis developed at French hospitals and funeral homes. French citizens were angered by the slow government response

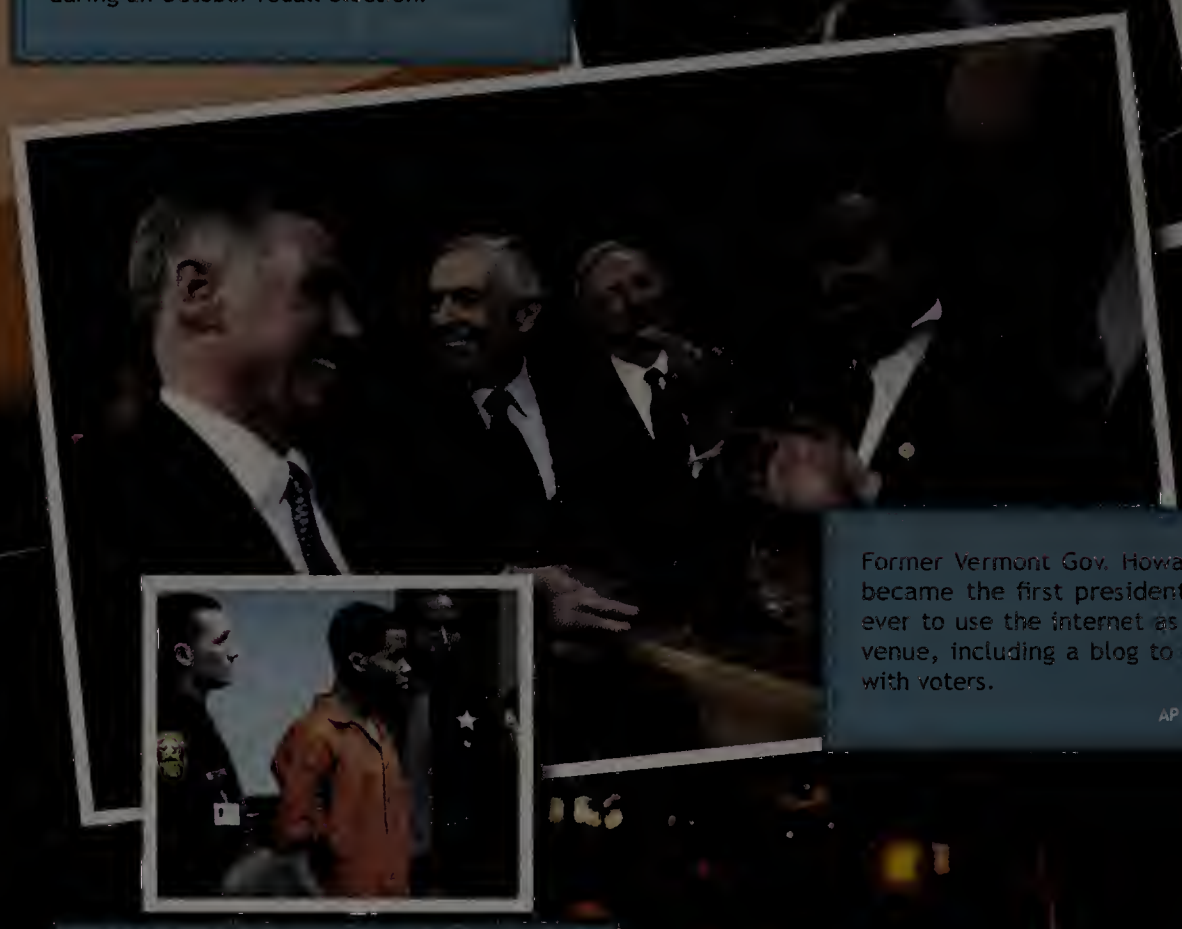
National/International News

Arnold Schwarzenegger, the Austrian-born body-builder and star of the The Terminator, Terminator 2 Judgement Day and other action movies, unseated unpopular Gov. Gray Davis during an October recall election.

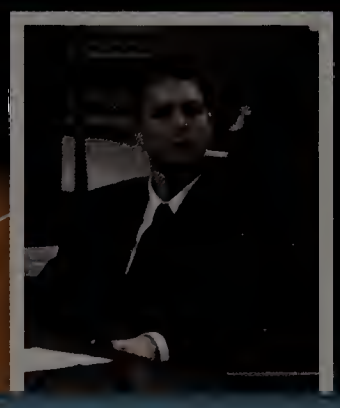


Former Vermont Gov. Howard Dean, left, became the first presidential candidate ever to use the internet as a fund-raising venue, including a blog to keep in touch with voters.

AP / Wide World Photos

John Allen Muhammad and Lee Boyd Malvo were found guilty in the Washington, D.C. sniper shootings. Meanwhile, at least a dozen shootings similar to those near Washington occurred near Columbus, Ohio.

AP / Wide World Photos



The nation followed the case of Scott Peterson, who was to be tried in the deaths of his wife, Lacy, and their unborn son. Lacy's disappearance Dec. 24, 2002, sparked a massive search in the Modesto, Calif., area. Both bodies washed up on shore in April 2003.

AP / Wide World Photos

A magnitude-6.5 earthquake was felt in December from San Francisco to Los Angeles, killing three people and destroying historic buildings in Paso Robles, including the wooden cupola that housed the old two-story clock tower.

AP / Wide World Photos

Celebrations in Vatican City in October marked the 25th anniversary of the papacy of Pope John Paul II. During the occasion, the 83-year-old pope beatified Mother Teresa, the nun who devoted most of her life to caring for the sick and destitute in Calcutta.

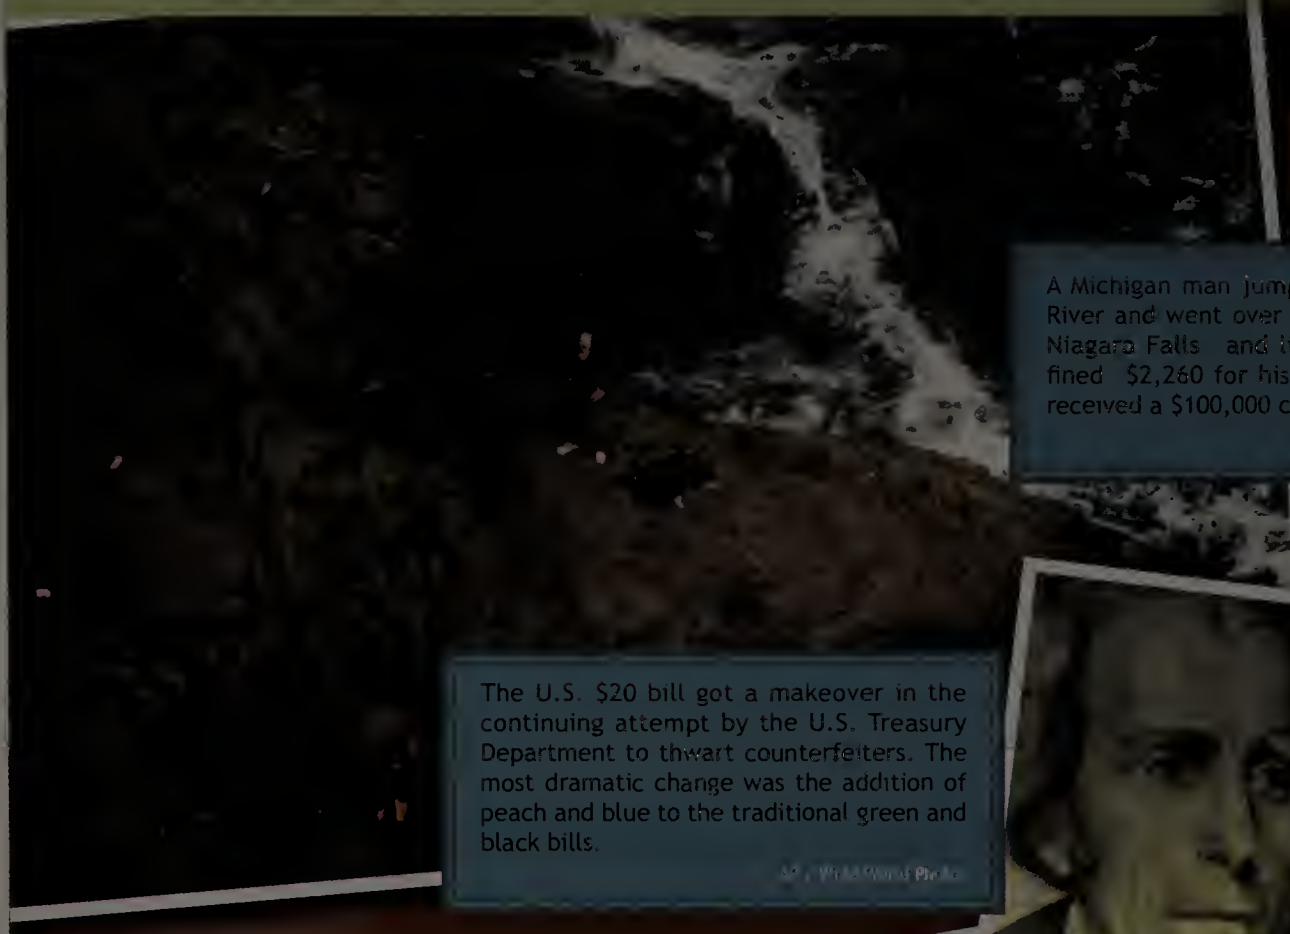
Signs of the Times

Taking a cue from many states, President George W. Bush signed into law a federal "do not call" list. People can request to be on the list and avoid calls from many telemarketers.

Get your rest before you get behind the wheel in New Jersey. The state has become the first to have a law against drowsy driving. Under the law, a driver who causes a fatal crash can be charged with vehicular homicide if there is evidence the driver was sleepy.

A homesick man thought it would be cheaper to fly himself home as cargo, but officials said he paid about the same as a first-class ticket. Charles McKinley shipped himself in a crate from New York to his parents' home in Dallas in a 15-hour journey that had officials concerned about the lack of security.

National/International News



A Michigan man jumped into the Niagara River and went over the Canadian side of Niagara Falls and lived. Kirk Jones was fined $2,260 for his October plunge but received a $100,000 circus contract.

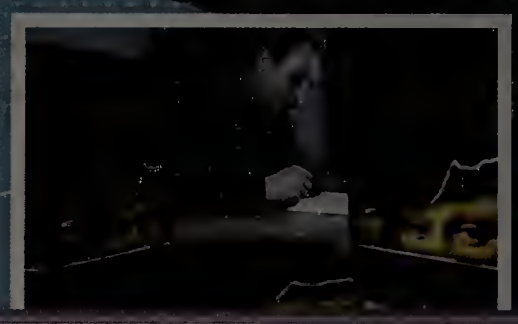
Entertainment

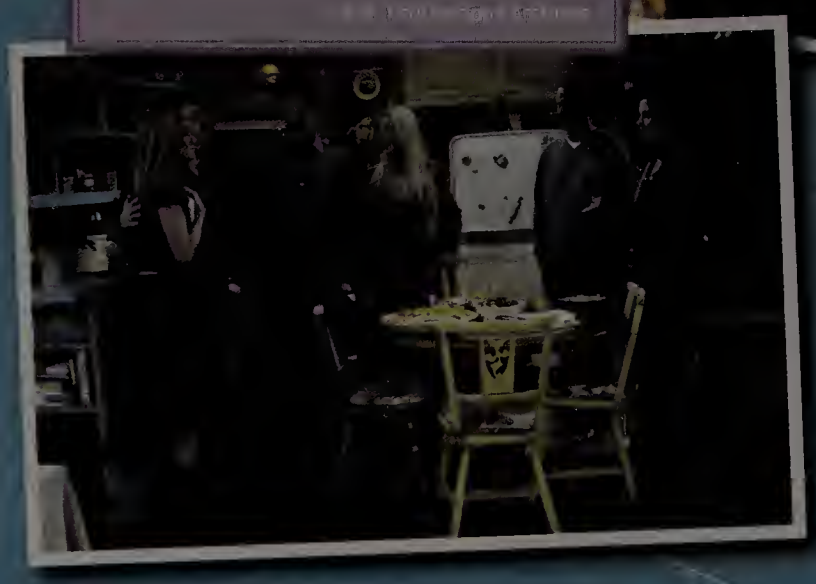
OutKast, a group formed by Andre 3000 and Big Boi, hit it big with Hey Ya! from the Grammy-winning Album of the Year, Speakerboxxx/The Love Below. Beyonce Knowles captured four awards from the Billboard Music Awards, including new female artist of the year, and five Grammys.

The Lord of the Rings trilogy came full circle with the release of the final film, Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King Dec. 17. The film earned The Golden Globe for Best Picture, and 11 Academy Award nominations.



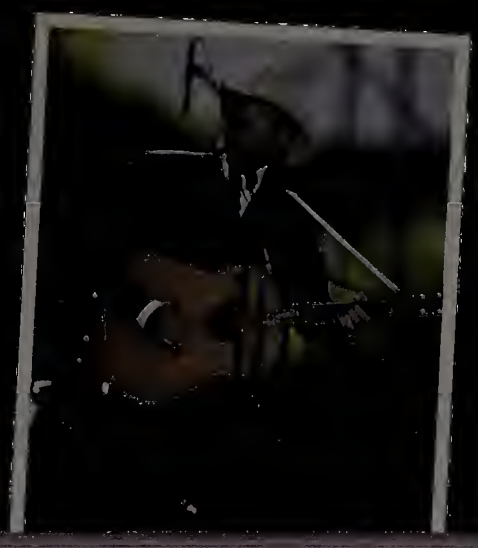
Intrigue, murder, suspense – author Dan Brown gave it all to his readers in The Da Vinci Code, a thriller that started in the Louvre museum in Paris and traveled across Europe and history.

The show must go on. With the death of John Ritter, producers for the T.V. show, 8 Simple Rules for Dating my Teenage Daughter, brought in James Garner and Suzanne Pleshette to play grandparents as the family struggled through the main character's death.



Friends ended its 10-year, highly rated run on NBC in May. Of the six stars, only Matt LeBlanc will be continuing his role as Joey in a spin-off next season.

Among Emmy winners were Everybody Loves Raymond for Outstanding Comedy Series, The West Wing for Outstanding Drama Series, and The Amazing Race for Outstanding Reality/Competition Program.

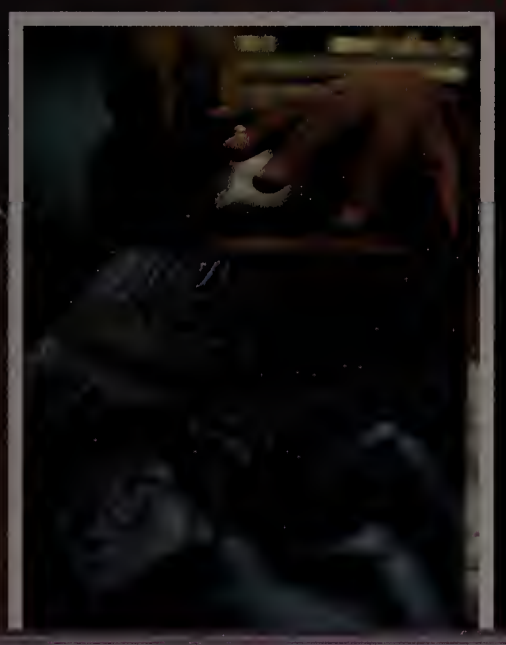


Alan Jackson was named Entertainer of the Year and top Male Vocalist at the 2003 Country Music Awards, while Martina McBride nabbed the Female Vocalist honors.

A 14-year-old California girl devised one of the games used on Survivor Pearl Islands. Kylie Cusick did not know her word scramble was chosen until she saw it on the air.

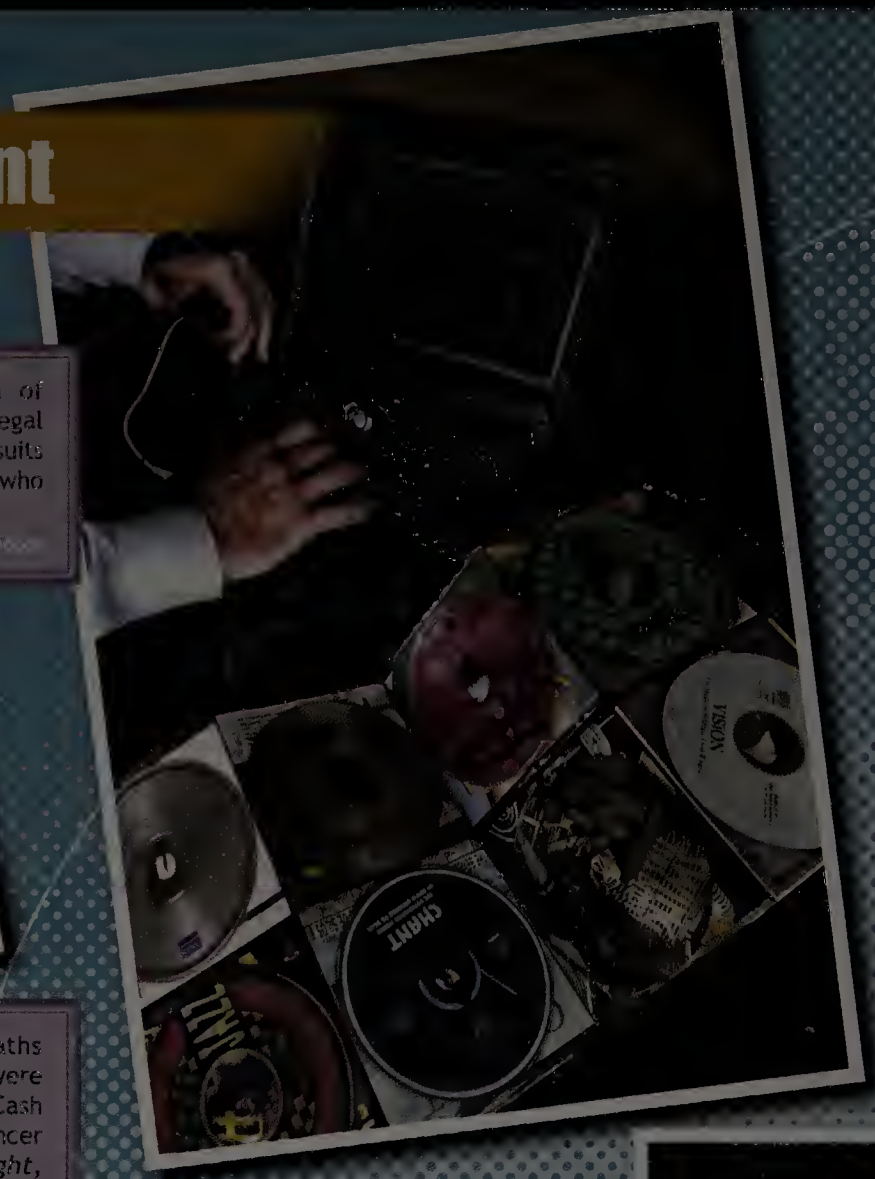
Religion became a television show theme again on CBS with Joan of Arcadia, in which God appears to an ordinary high school girl. In this photo, God is the lineman above Joan.

Britney Spears' new album, In the Zone, debuted at the No. 1 spot, making her the first female artist to debut four albums in a row at the top of the charts. But Spears and Madonna got more notice at the 2003 MTV Music Awards for their infamous kiss. And Spears got media attention of her 55-hour marriage to childhood friend Jason Allen Alexander.

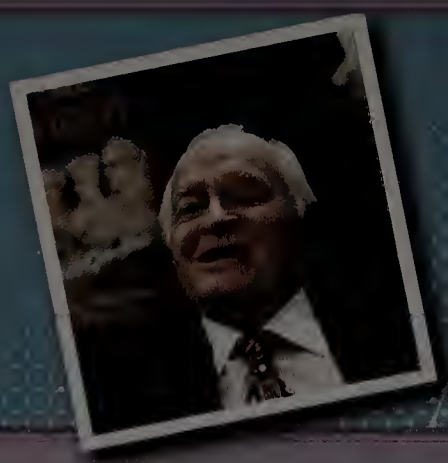


The fifth Harry Potter book was a pain for some children to read. The content of the 870-page Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix was not a problem; however, some younger readers enjoyed the book so much they got headaches and strained necks.

Entertainment



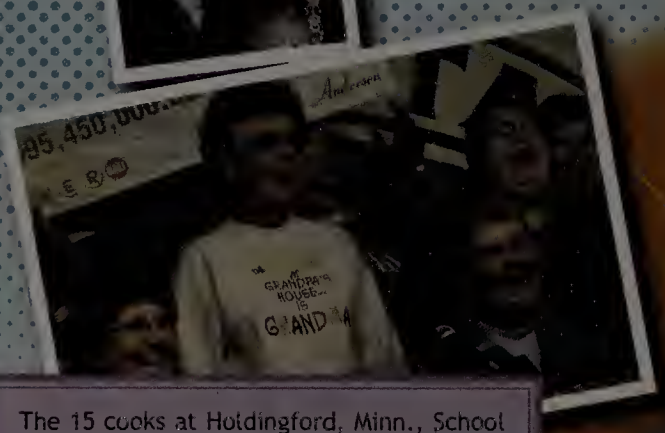
The Recording Industry Association of America escalated its battle against illegal downloading and file-sharing by filing lawsuits against people, mainly college students, who swap massive amounts of music.



A large number of celebrity deaths occurred in 2003. Among the notables were entertainer Bob Hope, singers Johnny Cash and his wife, June Carter Cash, announcer Rod Roddy of T.V.'s The Price is Right, and Keiko the killer whale from the Free Willy movies. Bob Keeshan, a.k.a. Captain Kangaroo, passed away in early 2004.

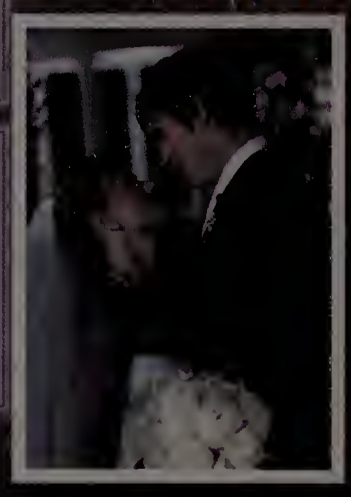
Singers Jessica Simpson and Nick Lachey turned their newlywed status into a hit MTV show, Newlyweds. Simpson is lovable as the "dumb blonde," who in one episode questioned whether Chicken of the Sea was chicken or tuna.

The media frenzy about "Bennifer"—Ben Affleck and Jennifer Lopez—ended when the couple, who had been together for 18 months, broke off their engagement in January.



The 15 cooks at Holdingford, Minn., School District and one janitor won a $95 million Powerball in October. After winning, they all went to work and fed the students before going to the state lottery office to claim their winnings.

Pop sensation Michael Jackson was charged with child molestation in alleged incidents at his Neverland Ranch. Jackson denied the charges, while family, friends and fans came to his defense. Similar accusations arose in 1993, but no charges were filed in that case.



One of the biggest weddings of the year, in terms of money spent, was the marriage of Bachelorette Trista Rehn and Ryan Sutter. ABC spent more than $1 million on the nuptials, which were seen by 17 million viewers. Trista and Ryan were also paid $1 million after the ceremony.

Trends

Flash mobs were a phenomenon that developed from cell phone text messaging. With one text message, you could tell everyone you know to meet at the same place at the same time – say, 2 p.m. Saturday on Main Street – and do something attention-getting – like a Tarzan yell for 30 seconds – then leave.

Style trends included monogrammed clothing; chandelier earrings; and trucker hats, like those worn by actor Ashton Kutcher; and hoodies.

Some slang words gained status. McJob – a low-paying job requiring little skill – entered the newest Merriam-Webster Collegiate Dictionary, angering McDonald's officials. The newest Oxford Dictionary of English included muggle, bootylicious, boy bands and girl bands.

Soda wars bubbled up in schools amid complaints that soft drinks are unhealthy for children. Some districts removed pop machines while others reduced the hours of availability. The decision about what to do was not easy, as some districts needed the revenue from the machines.

One phone number for life? You can keep your cell phone number when changing companies, and make your home and cell number the same. Camera phones also were popular, but some countries banned them over invasion of privacy concerns.

Studies showed that smoking among high school students had dropped and remained about the same for middle school students. However, tanning beds remain popular with teens despite the risk of skin cancer.

So what is pizza? The U.S. Department of Agriculture says pizza does not need crust, sauce or cheese to be labeled as pizza for sale in grocery stores. USDA also said "pizza with meat" products only have to have 2 to 3 percent meat instead of 12 to 15 percent.
